

2nd October 2015

Maskells Estate Agents are delighted to announce the two new appointments in its sales division:

Merton Croisdale-Appleby:

Merton joined Maskells having been with John D. Wood for the past 15 years. He specialised in the Chelsea and Knightsbridge markets. He has a wealth of experience in selling houses and flats along with development opportunities and investments at all value levels. His style of agency is based on an extremely high level of service to both vendors and purchasers, resulting in an extremely strong client and contact base in central London and overseas. Merton Joins as a Director.
Merton@maskells.co.uk

Howard Elston

Howard joined Maskells from Aylesford International where he specialised in high value property in Prime Central London. Howard has been in Agency for over 20 years and is one of London's most successful and effective agents. He has an extremely loyal client base and his wealth of knowledge and experience make him an invaluable addition to the Maskells family. Howard joins as a Managing Director
Howard@maskells.co.uk

Jamie Hope, MD of Sales commented:

“Whilst Maskells, established in 1965, is one of the oldest independent agents operating in Prime Central London, we have spent the last 2 years refocusing the business which has successfully culminated in our being able to attract the very best talent to the firm. We are delighted to welcome both Merton and Howard to our family”

